

BI-701 HAGGAI—COURSEWORK

WEEK #1	Discussion Question: In a paragraph of at least (7) sentences, tell me the historical setting of the book of Haggai.
WEEK #2	Discussion Question: In a paragraph of at least (7) sentences, discuss how Haggai 1:2 relates to the misplaced priorities of the people. How does this verse speak to your own priorities in your life?
WEEK #3	Discussion Question: In a paragraph of at least (7) sentences, discuss how the restored remnant was unprofitable in their endeavors, as a result of the halted work on the second temple. (See Haggai 1:6-11)
WEEK #4	ESSAY #1: Write an essay on the subject, "Consider Your Ways" found in Haggai 1:5. What were some of the "ways" of the people that need to be considered? What specifically were they to examine in their lives? What specific priorities were out of place? The essay needs to be approximately 300 words. With an introduction, thesis statement, supporting paragraphs, and a conclusion.
WEEK #5	CONTINUE WORKING ON ESSAY #1 Study for TEST #1—Study guide will be given, and we will go over it in class.
WEEK #6	TEST #1 —This test will cover Haggai chapter 1. A study guide will be given a week prior. The test will be closed book and notes.
WEEK #7	Discussion Question: In a paragraph of at least (7) sentences, explain what resulted in the comparison between Solomon's Temple and Zerubbabel's Temple? How should we avoid comparison? (See Haggai 2:1-3)
WEEK #8	Discussion Question: In a paragraph of at least (7) sentences, discuss how at times we have to be strong. (See Haggai 2:4-9)
WEEK #9	Discussion Question: In a paragraph of at least (7) sentences, give an area which you feel God needs to "shake us up". This can be in the area of our Christian lives, Churches, Communities, or Country. (See Haggai 2:6, 7)
WEEK #10	ESSAY #2 Write an essay on the importance of living a clean, holy, consecrated life. Take the following in consideration before writing: The unholiness, ungodliness, and uncleanness of the priests. (See Haggai 2:10-19) The essay needs to be approximately 300 words. With an introduction, thesis statement, supporting paragraphs, and a conclusion.
